

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Feb. 1, 1933.

THE WEATHER

Pressure continues high over the eastern half of the country and the Canadian northwest, while the disturbance that was central over Nevada Monday night has moved rapidly eastward and its effect has been felt over Nebraska Tuesday night. The temperature has risen in the lake region the great central valley and plain states and it has fallen in the plateau region. Low temperature continues in the north mountain region and the Canadian northwest.

The western disturbance will move rapidly northeastward attended by almost general precipitation most in the form of rain in the states east of the Mississippi river within the next two days. However, generally fair weather will continue Wednesday in the middle Atlantic and north Atlantic states.

Winds off the Atlantic:
North of Sandy Hook and Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Variable becomes moderate south; fair weather Wednesday.

Forecast:
For Southern New England: Fair Wednesday; Thursday rain, moderate temperature.

Observations in Norwich
The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Tuesday:

	Ther. Bar.
7 a. m.	34.30
12 m.	34.30
6 p. m.	34.35
Highest 36, lowest 30.

Companions
Predictions for Tuesday: Fair. Tuesday's weather: Fair and moderate; temperature: southeast wind.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES.

	Sun	High	Low	Sun	High	Low
Day	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	p. m.
1	7:05	5:00	11:20	7:51
2	7:02	5:02	11:20	8:47
3	7:00	5:05	11:20	9:44
4	6:58	5:08	11:20	10:42
5	6:56	5:10	11:20	11:40
6	6:54	5:12	11:20	12:38
7	6:52	5:15	11:20	13:36
8	6:50	5:18	11:20	14:34

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

W. T. Delaney is in Westfield, Mass. visiting friends.

The K. of C. carnival which has been running for some time, came to a close Tuesday evening. There was a very large crowd in attendance.

Adolph Dugas has received his diploma for civil historical music. Out of twenty only three received their diploma. He was one of the three.

The Platoon club held their weekly meeting Sunday evening in the vestry of the Taftville Congregational church. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Peale, of Norwich, who gave a short address on Indian life in this vicinity before and during the coming of the white man. Mr. Peale's address was heard by a number of old Indian legends and traditions, and told in detail of the attack on the Pequot tribe at Fort Hill, Groton, by the white men under the leadership of Captain John Mason, and his allies, the Mohican Indians under the command of their great sachem, Uncas. He also gave the story of the capture and execution of the Pequot leader, Miantonomo, and the burning of his wigwag at that time. This story was exceedingly interesting to the members of the club, as the Pequot were when on the warpath against the Shabamuck river, a few years ago, and the Pequot were the first to be killed by the white men, and the first to be captured and executed.

After his talk, Mr. Peale exhibited a number of his specimens of curios which he has collected in his studies of the Indians. These consisted of arrow heads, spearheads, bone tools, and other articles of Indian life, and comprised a highly interesting collection. Mr. Peale is an earnest and interesting speaker, and gave an audience a great deal of information regarding the tribe which inhabited this locality two hundred and sixty years ago.

Miss Seifried Freeman has resigned her position with the Pequot Club.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

MADE AND RECORDED
The following transfers of real estate in Norwich were recorded at the office of Town Clerk Charles S. Holbrook in the latter half of January:

Jan. 17, Charles F. Moore to Charles Jaskiewicz, 254 West Main street.

Helen B. P. Huntington to Ellen E. Wilber, land, Grant court.

Albert H. Sadler to David F. Henderson, to Elizabeth Perkins, lot at Norwich terrace.

Jan. 18, Clarence S. Perkins to Edith B. Perkins, Norwich terrace.

Jan. 18, Maennerchor Club to Karl and Anna Volkman, 1 lots, Highland street, Taftville.

Hugh Callahan to Lillian J. Callahan, 145 Russell avenue and land.

Jan. 20, Sarah E. Moran to Julia Burke, 56 Oak street.

Wm. M. Ryan to Polish Nat. Catholic church, land, West Thames street.

Agnes Gordon to Anna B. Skindzier, 115 Russell avenue.

Jan. 21, Maennerchor club to Anna H. Hofer, lot at Taftville.

Maennerchor club to Carl H. Hadler, lot at Taftville.

Jan. 24, James McNally to Andrew and Elizabeth Karczewski, Clinton avenue, East Hill.

Maennerchor club to Gustave Hadler, lot at Taftville.

Jan. 25, Agnes Gordon to Gustave E. Lambert, land, Prospect park.

William H. Frothinger to Mary R. Riley, 7 Treadway avenue.

Estate of John Stapleton to Giovanni Colonna, land, Baltic street.

Jan. 26, John Henry Harris to Fanny Christian, 134-136 1/2 Main street.

Jan. 28, Maennerchor club to Adolph and Freda Heinrich, 3 lots, Taftville.

Maennerchor club to Adam J. and Elizabeth Heinrich, lots, Taftville.

Dominick Ciarro to John P. Piliaga, 134 North street.

Jan. 30, Peter and Margaretha Ver Breeg to George and Annie Scott, 41 Lafayette street.

Annie L. and Edward G. Rawson to Isaac Gelfand, 58 Fairmount street.

INJURED WOMAN SUES FOR $4,000

Suit for $4,000 damages against the Continental Sugar and Products Co. of New Haven on behalf of Blanche A. Fontaine, 15, of Norwich, because of injuries received by Miss Fontaine when she was struck by an automobile belonging to the company. The suit is brought through her father, Alfred Fontaine, as her next friend and natural guardian and is returnable before the superior court on the first Tuesday in February.

The claim is made that Miss Fontaine was crossing the highway at Odom on March 5, 1931, and was in the exercise of due care when she was struck by the sugar company's machine, which was driven by John R. Tierney. She was thrown down, caught and dragged for a considerable distance, cut and lacerated on her head and face, her body mangled and bruised and her nervous system suffered permanent injury. It is claimed that Tierney was operating the car with great speed, force, violence and negligence.

The Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Society of New York sued for foreclosure of a two mortgages given by Harry Levine of Lebanon on two tracts of land in Lebanon. One mortgage is for $1,075.45, dated Dec. 31, 1916, and the other for $500, dated July 14, 1917.

Adelbert J. Needham of Stafford sued for foreclosure of a mortgage against Wm. H. Seegar of Lebanon on a tract of land in that town. The mortgage is for $2,000, dated Jan. 15, 1913.

Did you ever realize that one cent could grow into a million dollars? A copper cent is the start. The big Woolworth building in New York was built with the many nickels and dimes that we spend day after day in the Woolworth 5 and 10 cent stores. This teaches us to consider the value of small things.

As fast as some children get a couple of cents they run down to the store and spend it, and if some sensible person should advise them to save it they would just holler, "What's the use?" If you remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

LIQUOR RAIDS IN NEW LONDON BRING ARRESTS AT TWO PLACES

(Special to The Bulletin.)
New London, Jan. 31.—Aided by several members of the local police department, Prohibition Enforcement Officers Machol and Brown this afternoon visited several stores alleged to be places where intoxicating liquors are offered for sale. At the conclusion of the raid the agents arrested and arrested of Felix Niedonick, 105 Bradley street, and Mike Schwytz, 23 Bradley street. An inventory of the liquor seized at both places includes five gallons of wine, one quart of whiskey and a gallon of liquor which the police say is a mixture of alcohol and tea, a combination described as "hoosh."

In a clean and shining of these two places Agents Machol and Brown say they have checked a large part of illegal liquor traffic in New London. Other parts of the city, the prohibition officers say, are as dry as the Sahara desert, but they say they do not propose to let up on vigilance. Local police officers assisting in the raid were Sergt. Samuel Hill, Foreman Sheehan, J. Cavanaugh, D. Cavanaugh, J. Sullivan and M. Concoran.

The possibility of a reduction in the price of food to the consumer next summer was discussed by two of the big dealers here today, but at the conclusion of the conference it was stated no agreement had been reached. Officers of the New London Ice company said they have completed their harvest for this year. Two big houses at the Waterford ponds have been filled with about 20,000 tons and more than 1,000 tons have been stacked in the open. Another day, it is stated, will complete the filling of the Perry ponds, and when a greater supply than has been stored for many years. The cost of harvesting the ice is estimated at 80 cents per ton.

Bank books of $5, $250 and $1, respectively were the prizes given to the three winners of the contest given to Polly Benton of Norwich, Daniel Green of Norwich, and Ethel Holland of Taftville.

The three judges, Miss Amy Cogswell, F. E. Beeson and Emory H. Davis, had a large number of papers to look over from Norwich boys and girls as well as those from other towns in the territory and the contest related many clever writers on the topic.

The contest was made possible through the generosity of a great believer and friend of the coming generation who offered the prizes as an incentive to the young people to give thought in their youth to the subject of thrift.

First Prize Paper
The first prize paper of Hannah Lindvall was as follows:
Boys and girls should learn to save their money when they are young so they will form the habit of saving it and putting it in the bank. They should not save every red cent like a miser does but should save it for something useful. Candy and sweets are destructive to our teeth and by saving our money and depositing it in a bank we will gain health, interest and at the same time acquire capital.

As we grow older we will naturally think of our future education. By saving our money and depositing it in the bank the temptation of spending will be less, and when we are through with high school work we will have the money for our college fees, all earned, plus the interest waiting for us in the bank.

Did you ever realize that one cent could grow into a million dollars? A copper cent is the start. The big Woolworth building in New York was built with the many nickels and dimes that we spend day after day in the Woolworth 5 and 10 cent stores. This teaches us to consider the value of small things.

As fast as some children get a couple of cents they run down to the store and spend it, and if some sensible person should advise them to save it they would just holler, "What's the use?" If you remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us by the kind of a universe He has given to us."

Remember that the little "Now" we can get a good foothold in life. If we keep thinking "Now is the time" we will get somewhere, climbing one step higher each day on the road to riches.

At the time of the great war, especially, men were looked upon as so much fodder for cannon, and in many places fathers and mothers were treated in factories rather harshly. We hold human life too cheaply while God's estimate of human life is very high. In the very beginning, God said to man, "Use all the things that I have given to you, and be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth; you can tell the extent of the interest He has in us